Darshane Conklin had submitted a quote for taking care of the flower beds at the Castile Government Center.

Coun Hurst stated that he is against removing the flower beds and filling them with concrete.

Sup Klein stated that he is in favor of trying it for 1 year and seeing how it goes.

A motion was made by Coun Vitagliano, seconded by Coun Hurst to accept the bid of $695.00 from Darshane Conklin for the 2021 year contingent upon it being split with the Village 50/50.

Polled: Ayes: Hurst, Klein, Vitagliano
             Noes: Barber                Carried

Sup Klein brought up the request from Lindsay Beaumont regarding changing Pattridge Road to Beaumont Road. He received word from Atty Kelly that it may be as easy as doing a resolution but he wants to check more into it. Sup Klein stated that he feels that there has to be more to it than that and that the residents on that road should have a say at a board meeting.

Coun Barber asked if she has spoke with the neighbors.

Coun Hurst stated that he thinks she said she did at the last meeting but feels they should do a memorial sign.

Coun Barber stated that if any of this is done it should not be at the expense of the Town.

Sup Klein stated that it won't be.

Clerk Koch stated that typically she has $100 petty cash to make change for taxes and asked if it could be changed to $500 since the bank now closes at 2:00.

A motion was made by Coun Barber, seconded by Coun Vitagliano to approve Clerk Koch to receive $500 for petty cash for taxes.
